Jemima Burnage, CQC Head of Inspection for Adult Social Care in the Central region said:

"Our inspection team was really impressed by the level of care and support offered to people at Crowstone House".

The Managing Director, Logan Logeswaran, was unable to attend due to annual leave but sent his best wishes to all the Staff.

The Home also received messages of congratulation from the local MP - David Amess and Fay Evans, the Mayor of Southend Borough Council.

Councillors Nigel Folkard and Stephen Habermel were impressed by the warm reception they received from staff at the Home.

"Rosie" provided an afternoon of Music and Songs which was thoroughly enjoyed by residents, relatives and friends.

A big thank you to our Chef Elie for the amazing Buffet and Housekeeper Ana for her imaginative and stunning decor.
