

OLDFIELD HOUSE

NEWSLETTER

Our residents enjoyed a morning of meeting a range of different animals and creatures when Zoo Lab came to visit in November. The morning was a success and we have further dates booked in the diary for throughout the year so watch out for notices for those if you would like to attend a session with your loved ones!

Pie and Pea supper on Bonfire Night was enjoyed by all. Alan Turner came to entertain us with a song and a dance!

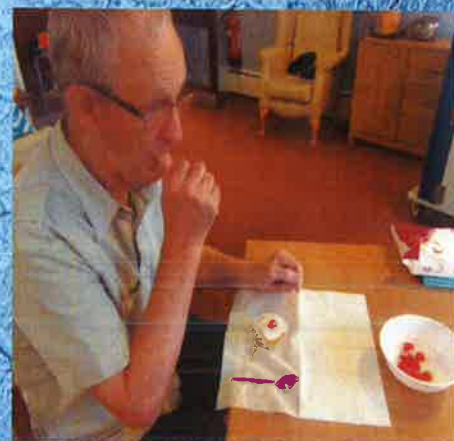

At Gail's Bingo Night, we raised a whopping £637.80 to put into the resident's Amenities Fund.

Clouds Clothing visited on 10th December so residents could enjoy looking at and buying clothes for themselves. Clothes bought ranged from everyday casual clothes, to smart outfits for Christmas Day and New Year's Day. Everyone that bought clothes thoroughly enjoyed the afternoon.

On 7th December, staff and residents celebrated Elf Day and on the 14th they also celebrated National Christmas Jumper Day. Below are some pictures of the outfits/t-shirts/jumpers we sported!

Residents are now participating in weekly baking and taste testing sessions with our Activity Co-Ordinator Nicky. Here are some pictures of the residents and the delights and masterpieces they have created recently!

In December, we also gratefully received a donation of chocolates and sweets from the local Co-Op in Dunscroft for our Christmas raffle. The raffle raised £235.50

Christmas & New Year

Our annual Christmas Party was held on 15th December. Alan

Turner came to entertain us and the residents, family, friends and visitors enjoyed a buffet tea and a tippie or two!

Alan then returned on 2nd January for a New Year's performance which was enjoyed by all. The residents love having Alan visit and perform for us.
