

Skyping from Park View on Christmas Day 2018

Gladys Spackman and her daughter Diane were able to Skype and have Face time with family in Australia on Christmas Day 2018

Paul Pallett one of many staff members who worked on Christmas Day was on hand to help set up the connection and enable Gladys to enjoy chatting with family who live on the other side of the world.

The world is a much smaller place thanks to technology